no failures of any importance at the end of last year, the financial condition of a majority of the native shops are by no means so good as they seem, owing to the depreciation of silver. (Mexican dollar i). In former years, nearly all the shops were opened for business after the 6th day of the New Year, but not one half of the nuclber have done so this year, and it is said that the dealers in flowers, rice, and foreign goods, at the East Gate, have not yet obtained the necessary money to open their inches thick and the most eighteen inches shops for business. - Shanghol Courser.

THE return to Parliament of the Right Hon. G. J. Goschen for the district of St. George's, Hanover Square, is a satisfactory item of news. Mr Goschen will, as Chancellor of the Exchequer, greatly strengthen the present Government; and the moderate section of both the great political parties will hail his return with pleasure. Lord Algernon Percy was returned unopposed for St. George's at last election in the interests of this highly Conservative district of the metropolis; and the noble member has evidently retired gracefully to make room for the more able commoner.

WE observe from the Nagasaki Express of the 9th instant that H. M.'s gunboat Firebrand proceeded to Port Hamilton from Nagasaki shortly before noon on Monday the 7th instant, with the British barque Dorothy in tow, that vessel having been chartered to bring away the Government huts and timber, which have been purchased by Mr Teh Leo, a Chinese subject, for the paltry sum of $250! MAJOR W. T. Ellis, the occupant of Beryl House, Kowloon, was charged at the Police instant, and may be expected here on Court this morning, before Mr Mackean with wilfully and maliciously committing damage upon certain property, to wit 41 on the 11th inst., and may be expected banana trees on the road leading to the Kowloon Club, the property of the Queen. Mahomed Shan, P.C. 667, said that on the 10th inst., and may expected here on 9th instant, about 3 a.m. he saw two gentlemen, one much taller than the other, proceeding along the Banana Avenue leading to the Kowloon Club. As they walked along the avenue they pulled leaves off the banana trees, and bent the trees, doing damage to 41 of them. He followed the two men and saw them enter Beryl House. The defendant was the tall gentleman he referred to. Major Ellis denied that he was guilty of the charge, and the case was adjourned for a week. On the 2nd instant, a suit for $5,000 damages for defamation of character, brought by Dr White against Mr. T. W. Duff, both of Chinkiang, was heard in H. B. M.'s Consular Court, Chinkiang, by Mr G. Jamieson, Assistant Judge of H. B. M.'s Supreme Court in China and Japan. Mr H. S. Wilkinson, Crown Advocate, appeared for the plaintiff, and in his opening speech stated that the plaintiff would forego all claim for damages and costs, if the defendant would apologise and would undertake on his honour not to repeat the A Notice to Mariners respecting the posi- libels which he was charged with uttoring. was then heard out, affording great amusement to the Chinkiang residents, and esulted in the defendant's being condemned to pay to the plaintiff $500 damager and $500 costs; the Judge stating that the defendant's refusal to make an apology had necessarily influenced him in fixing the amount of the award. Our Shanghai contemporaries, from whom we quote the above information, do not give the nature of the defamatory statements,

THE adjourned case in which Young Sui, contractor, was charged at the instance of the Colonial Treasurer with having knowingly furnished false particulars relative to the rent received for houses owned by him at Nos. 55, 57, 59, and 61, Queen's-road Central, was again brought on at the Magistracy this morning before Mr E. Mackean On the case being called, Mr Wilson (of Messra. His Worship asked if all the arrears of tares had been paid and, being answered in the negative, adjourned the case for a week, to give the defendant the opportunity of paying up these arrears, intimating that when this had been done he would give his decision.

> THE weather in the North has been very cold of late. The N.-O. Daily News says -A few days ago, one of the steamers bound up to Hankow passed an overturned junk with two men on it frozen to death. so heavy has been the fall of snow at linus kow and Kinkiany that the ruofs of several lionies at the former port, and one at the latter, gave way under the great accumulation of snow on them. We are informed that on measuring the depth of snow at Hankow it was found to range from three feet to three feet six inches. On the 8th instant the Kicagioo arrived at Shanghat with her paddle boxes coated inside with ice to the thickness of a foot in some places. The los at Hankow on the 2nd was four

the 'World' was concluded at the Cricket Ground this afternoon. The scores on both sides were rather small. In their first innings the 'World' made 97, the highest score-18-being made by C. S. Barff. 'Iroland', in their first innings, were disposed of for 49 runs, the only double figures-12 and 15-being made by G. S. Coxon and A. K. Travers. The second innings did not give a much better result. The "World' only made a total of 74, 26 being the highest individual score, which was made by W. Bruce Robertson. Ireland' fared somewhat better when they went to the wickets the second time. They managed to run up a total of 83, of which the highest figure was 20, made by A. de C. Scanlan, who was unfortunately run out when he was hitting freely and seemed likely to make a good score. The 'World' were thus the winners by 39 runs. On behalf of Ireland the bowling was done by E. J. Coxon and H. Dawson, the former taking 7 wickets in the first innings. and 6 in the second, and the latter taking 3 on each occasion. On behalf of the World 'F. H. O. Wilson had 5 wickets each innings and O. S. Barff had 3 in the first and 4 in the second.

BALINGER'S Opera Company gave a very successful performance of 'The Mikado' to a crowded house on Thursday night. The operatic part has perhaps been done more justice to by some of the Companies that have visited Hongkong, but the piece has soldom been better acted here. The chief attraction last night was Miss Lena Salinger as Yum-Yum. Despite the fact that this young lady has not a very winning voice, her spirited interpretation of the part and her graceful movements on the stage won enthusiastic applause. The love-making scone with Nanki-Poo, although somewhat tod sentimental to bear repetition, had to be given twice over. Next to her perhaps ought to be mentioned Mr Rigby as the Lord High Executioner, who played his part with great verve and humour. Ho introduced a few characteristic mannerisms into his acting and singing which were certainly catching. In the Willow-tit-willow' solo, and the duet 'The flowers that bloom in the spring, he scored a great success. The topical song ' I've got them on the list had one or two local allusions in it, the Commissioner to the Colonial Exhibition being fwitted for not having his list. Miss Tilly Saroney had the part of Katisha, which, we think, must have been a rather difficult one for hor: That she succeeded in her make-up and rendering of the character is a proof of her superior talent. She was perhaps somewhat lacking in the dramatic force necessary for such a character, but she atoned for this by the excellent rendering of the songs and duets in her role, and was recalled several times. As the Mikade, Mr D'Este made a fairly good appearance-a little too stiff perhaps, the song ' My object all sublime 'falling rather flatly on this account. The part of Nanki Poo was taken by Mr A. Fawcett, who played and sang very fairly. Mr H. Salinger made a capital Pooh Bah, being as stately and as dignified as a man with such a pedigree could well be conceived. The Company perform Les Cloches de Corneville on Tuesday, when we trust they will have a bumper house.

SAYS the Singapore Free Press :- It must be a real pleasure to the many friends and well-wishers Sir Cecil Smith has left behind him in the Straits to be able to congratulate him upon the honour which has been conferred on him by the Secretary of State for the Colonies in appointing him ad interim Governor of Hongkong, a colony where he is still remembered as a deserving and hard-working public servant. That he will be glad to return to the scene of his early days we doubt not, as it doubtless foreshadows well-merited promotion when his work there will be at an end on the arrival in November of Sir George Strahan; but where fate may direct his steps is still hidden in the future. It is probable that he may then think of a return to England to recruit and prepare himself-for a further career in the public service; and should Sir Frederick Weld's extra year in the Straits Settlements be granted, in order that he may complete his term for a pension, and the wonderful policy which has done so much to promote the prosperity of agriculture and the welfare of the natives, may be carried out in its great entirety, and prime val jungle again obtain ascendancy, the period of his limal departure might suit the convenience of one whose rule, though temporary, has left its impression and i remembered with gratitude by appreciative FRAGRANT WATERS' MURMUR That it is to the credit of the local Government that the judicial powers proposed to be given to the Registrar General are now to be hedged round, as I suggested they should be.

That the spontaneous action of the people,' in any endeavours to commemorate the Jubilee of Hor Majesty's reign, is a neat physic enough, but that Government and people ought to move intelligently togother, so that the one may not tread on the other's toes.

That, while I sympathise strongly with Mr Chater's contempt for cracker-firing modes of colebrating such an event, 1 can scarcely say that the Victoria Park idea comes up to muster.

That, although it clearly bears the traces of much polishing from an accomplished English hand, it exhibits a healthiness of tone which, regarded in the light of the past, is simply wonderful.

That although the sublime self-assurance of the modern Mongolian is apparent throughout, it is most skilfully habited and draped in the most polished English. That your morning contemporary patronisingly remarks that ' The article not only displays considerable originality and breadth of thought, but it is couched in good nervous English.'

That when the little farthing candle that glimmers at the top of Wyndham Street can produce an article even in the most distant degree approaching the Marquis's somewhat remarkable production, in originality, breadth of thought, or in nervously-expressed English, the D. THE 'GLENROY' IN A GALE. CHIEF OFFICER AND TWO MEN WASHED OVERBOARD.

Captain Richard Webster, master of the British steamer Glenroy, which arrived here this morning from home and Singapore en route for Japan, sends us the following report of a severe gale which he experienced in the Bay of Biscay and of a disastrous accident which occurred during the height of the gale :-

Left London, on Dec. 24th. Weather then very wet and cloudy, with wind from S.W. and blowing strong. At 4.90 p.m. anchored at the Nore. 11 p.m. same night, weather clear and wind N.W., got underweigh and proceeded on our voyage.

Surprised at such a high reading of the barometer, during such weather, and kept watching it attentively. At 9 a.m. it had fallen one tenth, and continued falling at the rate of one tenth per hour. At noon, we were in a position by acc. of 48° 58' N. lat. and 5° 11' W. long.; barometer then 29in, 50. At 3 p.m., I had the lowest reading of the barometer 29.30 in., that is, seven tenths of an inch lower that at 8 a.m. It may have been lower, but I did not see it, as I was not again in the chart room till 8 p.m., when it then Nagasaki. 30.30 registored 29.80in. The after-steering gear was completely disabled by the rudder swinging about. I may state that the three men were not all washed overboard at once. The Chief Officer was the first who was lost, and that was just after the chains parted. Then another man was missed, but the third was not missed till morning, when the list was called over to find out the names of the missing and disabled.

During the night, we lost a life boat, and had another damaged. Rails and stanchions on the starboard quarter were wrenched off the deck and carried away; the salcon skylight was started; engine room skylight damaged; wheel casing and all connected completely swept away; ice box and meat safe carried away; after steering gear rendered useless, also considerable damage to fittings on the bridge; and cabin fittings, and a large quantity of stores damaged by
